Dear Susan:

We are so excited that The Interactive Band will be with us again for our Christmas party. Your participation last year made the party a huge success. Our employees raved about your talent and range of selections. I am especially glad that you suggested the additional horns. They certainly added excitement to the music.

Besides your talent, we appreciated the professional manner in which you set up and dismantled the band. You have a reputation with Capital City Club as a band that can be counted on to keep the party going yet maintain a professional atmosphere at all times.

Good luck with all of your bookings for the remainder of the year. We are looking forward to seeing you on December 8, 2000.

Sincerely,

Sandra B. Bowers
